

DO NOT WRITE BEYOND HEAVY LINE

UNCLASSIFIED

January 6, 2009.

Dear Michael:

Hello:

I hope this letter finds you in good spirits.

I wanted to write to tell you about my condition in Camps.

First, Thank you for your letter (dated December 19, 2008), which I received on ~~the~~ January 6, 2009.

As you probably know already, prisoners resumed hunger strike at Guantanamo. However, since December 22, 2008 I have been on the hunger strike. I can't tell you all the details, but again, I want you to know that I am being forced-fed through nasal-gastric tube.

Two years ago, you were told that I ~~was~~ have been declared eligible for release from Guantanamo, but I am still remaining confined for 24 hours a day in an individual, enclosed steel cell completely cut off from human contact. The cell has no window to the outside or access to natural light or fresh air.

Jabbarov Oybek Jamoliddinovich ~~Allo~~

Re. well
